The data confirms

Meaning: The phrase 'the data confirms' indicates that information or evidence supports a particular conclusion or assertion.

1. After reviewing the results, the data confirms our initial hypothesis about the experiment.
2. In the latest report, the data confirms the effectiveness of the new teaching methods.
3. The data confirms that there has been a significant increase in customer satisfaction this quarter.
4. According to the survey results, the data confirms that most people prefer online shopping over in-store purchases.
5. The data confirms the correlation between exercise and improved mental health.
6. In her analysis, the data confirms the trend of rising temperatures over the last century.
7. The data confirms that our marketing strategy has led to higher sales figures this month.
8. After conducting multiple tests, the data confirms the safety of the new vaccine.
9. The data confirms the need for further research into the effects of climate change on agriculture.
10. In conclusion, the data confirms that our efforts to reduce waste have been successful.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/the+data+confirms