

The inference drawn is

Meaning: The inference drawn is a conclusion or interpretation derived from evidence or reasoning.

1. After analyzing the data, the inference drawn is that the new policy has significantly improved employee satisfaction.
2. In the debate, the inference drawn is often more important than the arguments presented.
3. The inference drawn from the study suggests a strong correlation between exercise and mental health.
4. Based on her observations, the inference drawn is that the team works best under pressure.
5. The inference drawn is that climate change is accelerating due to human activities.
6. From the historical documents, the inference drawn is that the society valued education highly.
7. The inference drawn from the experiment was that the hypothesis needed to be revised.
8. After reviewing the evidence, the inference drawn is that the defendant is likely guilty.
9. The inference drawn from the survey results indicated a shift in public opinion on the issue.
10. His analysis was thorough, and the inference drawn is that further research is necessary.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/the+inference+drawn+is>