THEATRICALS

Meaning: Theatricals refers to dramatic performances or productions, often characterized by exaggerated expressions and actions.

1. The annual arts festival featured a variety of theatrical performances that captivated the audience.

2. Her dramatic flair and penchant for theatricals made her the star of the school play.

3. The director was known for his extravagant theatricals that pushed the boundaries of traditional storytelling.

4. Despite the theatricals of the production, the underlying message resonated deeply with the viewers.

5. He often dismissed her stories as mere theatricals, but they revealed profound truths about her experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/theatricals