

THEOLOGIAN

Meaning: A theologian is a scholar or expert in the study of religious beliefs, practices, and the nature of the divine.

1. The theologian spent years studying ancient texts to better understand the origins of religious thought.
2. After much contemplation, the theologian published a groundbreaking book on the intersection of science and faith.
3. In her lectures, the theologian encouraged students to question traditional beliefs and seek their own understanding of spirituality.
4. The theologian participated in an interfaith dialogue to promote mutual respect and understanding among different religions.
5. His reputation as a distinguished theologian attracted scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds to his seminars.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/theologian>