

THEOPHILOSOPHIC

Meaning: Theophilosophic refers to the study or discussion that combines theological and philosophical perspectives, particularly in exploring spirituality and the nature of existence.

1. The theophilosophic discussions often bridge the gap between spirituality and philosophy.
2. Her theophilosophic approach to understanding the universe attracted many like-minded individuals.
3. He wrote extensively on the theophilosophic implications of modern scientific discoveries.
4. The theophilosophic texts of ancient scholars continue to influence contemporary thought.
5. In his lecture, he emphasized the importance of the theophilosophic perspective in ethical debates.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/theophilosophic>