

THEOPNEUSTIC

Meaning: Theopneustic refers to the belief that scripture is inspired or "breathed out" by God, indicating divine influence in its creation.

1. The theologian argued that the inspiration of scripture is theopneustic, as it is believed to be divinely breathed.
2. Her theopneustic perspective on the sacred texts emphasized the importance of divine influence in their creation.
3. The church's doctrine highlighted the theopneustic nature of the Bible, asserting that each word carries a divine origin.
4. In discussions about religious literature, the concept of theopneustic inspiration often leads to debates about authorship and authenticity.
5. Many believers find comfort in the theopneustic belief that the scriptures are not just human writings but are infused with divine wisdom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/theopneustic>