

THERIODONT

Meaning: Theriodont refers to a group of extinct, mammal-like reptiles characterized by specific adaptations that are significant in the evolutionary transition from reptiles to mammals.

1. The theriodont group is known for its unique adaptations in the evolution of mammals.
2. Paleontologists discovered new theriodont fossils that shed light on the transition from reptiles to mammals.
3. Understanding theriodont characteristics helps scientists trace the lineage of modern mammals.
4. The theriodont jaw structure was a significant factor in the development of more efficient chewing.
5. In the fossil record, theriodonts exhibit a fascinating blend of reptilian and mammalian features.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/theriodont>