

THERMOGENOUS

Meaning: Thermogenous refers to the ability to generate heat, particularly in biological processes or substances that contribute to temperature regulation or energy production.

1. The thermogenous process in brown adipose tissue plays a crucial role in regulating body temperature.
2. Researchers are exploring the thermogenous properties of certain plants to develop new energy solutions.
3. Understanding thermogenous mechanisms can enhance our knowledge of metabolic disorders.
4. In cold environments, thermogenous activities are essential for maintaining homeostasis in mammals.
5. The study focused on thermogenous responses to varying environmental conditions in amphibians.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thermogenous>