

THERMOMETROGRAPH

Meaning: A thermometrograph is an instrument that continuously records temperature variations over time.

1. The thermometrograph recorded the temperature fluctuations throughout the night.
2. In scientific research, a thermometrograph is essential for tracking long-term temperature changes.
3. She checked the thermometrograph to ensure that the laboratory conditions were stable.
4. The accuracy of the thermometrograph made it a valuable tool for climate studies.
5. Using a thermometrograph, they were able to visualize temperature variations over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thermometrograph>