

THICK

Meaning: Thick: having a considerable distance between opposite sides; dense or substantial in form or texture.

1. The walls of the ancient castle were made of thick stone, ensuring its durability through the centuries.
2. She wore a thick sweater to keep warm during the chilly winter evening.
3. The fog was so thick that it was difficult to see more than a few feet ahead.
4. He spread a thick layer of butter on his toast before adding the jam.
5. The book was filled with thick pages that felt luxurious to the touch.
6. The thick fog made it nearly impossible to see the road ahead.
7. She spread a thick layer of butter on her toast for extra flavor.
8. The book had a thick spine, suggesting it was filled with many exciting stories.
9. His thick hair made it difficult to style in the morning.
10. They used a thick blanket to keep warm during the chilly night.
11. The fog was so thick that I could barely see a few feet in front of me.
12. She wore a thick sweater to keep warm during the chilly evening.
13. The book had a thick spine, indicating it was filled with many pages.
14. He spread a thick layer of butter on his toast before adding jam.
15. The forest was dense, with thick underbrush making it difficult to walk through.
16. The fog was so thick that we could barely see a few feet in front of us.
17. The walls of the ancient castle were made of thick stone, standing the test of time.
18. He spread a thick layer of cream cheese on the bagel before adding smoked salmon.
19. The novel's plot was thick with intrigue and unexpected twists that kept readers engaged.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thick>