

THICKENING

Meaning: Thickening refers to the process of becoming denser or more viscous, often resulting in a richer or more substantial consistency.

1. The thickening of the sauce made it rich and flavorful.
2. As the temperature dropped, the ice on the pond began its slow thickening.
3. In cooking, a roux serves as an effective thickening agent for soups and stews.
4. The thickening of the fog created an eerie atmosphere on the deserted street.
5. Her thickening hair was a sign of the changing seasons and cooler weather.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thickening>