

THIRSTILY

Meaning: Thirstily: in a manner that shows a strong desire or eagerness to drink, often due to thirst.

1. She drank thirstily from the cool spring, feeling the refreshing water revive her senses.
2. After the long hike, he reached for his water bottle and gulped thirstily.
3. The dog lapped up the water thirstily, desperate to quench its parched throat.
4. As the sun set, the villagers gathered around the well, thirstily awaiting their turn for water.
5. The athletes finished the marathon and thirstily sought out hydration at the refreshment stand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thirstily>