

This makes evident

Meaning: The phrase 'this makes evident' is used to indicate that something clearly demonstrates or shows a particular fact or truth.

1. The study's results are compelling; this makes evident the need for further research.
2. Her expression was filled with joy, and this makes evident how much she appreciated the surprise.
3. The data collected over the years is consistent, and this makes evident a clear trend in climate change.
4. His actions during the crisis were heroic, and this makes evident his true character.
5. The comparison of the two reports highlights significant differences, and this makes evident the need for a review.
6. The teacher's explanation was thorough, and this makes evident why the students understood the complex topic.
7. Through various examples, the author illustrates his point effectively, and this makes evident the importance of the issue.
8. The feedback from customers was overwhelmingly positive, and this makes evident their satisfaction with the product.
9. Her dedication to the project was apparent, and this makes evident her commitment to excellence.
10. The artist's use of color and form is striking, and this makes evident their unique style.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/this+makes+evident>