

This makes the case that

Meaning: This phrase indicates that evidence or reasoning supports a particular argument or viewpoint.

1. The research presented in the article makes the case that climate change is accelerating faster than previously thought.
2. In her speech, she makes the case that education reform is essential for economic growth.
3. The lawyer effectively makes the case that his client acted in self-defense.
4. His extensive experience in the field makes the case that he is the best candidate for the job.
5. The documentary makes the case that renewable energy sources are crucial for a sustainable future.
6. In the debate, she makes the case that universal healthcare should be a priority for the government.
7. The statistics shared in the report make the case that poverty rates have decreased significantly over the past decade.
8. He makes the case that investing in mental health services is as important as physical health care.
9. The author makes the case that historical events often repeat themselves if we do not learn from our mistakes.
10. The study makes the case that early childhood education has lasting effects on a child's development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/this+makes+the+case+that>