

THOROW

Meaning: 'Thorow' is a variant of 'throw' meaning to discard or eliminate something deemed unnecessary or burdensome.

1. The artist decided to thorow her old canvases away to make room for new inspiration.
2. He felt a sense of liberation as he thorow the unnecessary clutter from his mind.
3. In an attempt to simplify his life, he chose to thorow anything that no longer served a purpose.
4. The gardener took the time to thorow the dead plants, allowing new growth to flourish.
5. She realized it was time to thorow the past and embrace the opportunities ahead.
6. The artist decided to thorow his old brushes away to make room for new ones.
7. She had to thorow out the expired food from the refrigerator before the guests arrived.
8. After the storm, we had to thorow all the damaged furniture onto the curb for pickup.
9. He plans to thorow a big farewell party for his friends before moving away.
10. In the spring cleaning, they decided it was time to thorow out clothes they no longer wore.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thorow>