

THOUGH

Meaning: Though: a conjunction used to introduce a contrast or concession, indicating that something is true despite another fact.

1. Though it was raining, we decided to go for a hike.
2. She was tired; though, she still managed to finish her work on time.
3. Though many people doubted his abilities, he proved them wrong.
4. He smiled at her, though he felt a bit nervous inside.
5. Though the movie received mixed reviews, I found it quite enjoyable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/though>