

THRACK

Meaning: THRACK (noun): a sharp, sudden noise or sound, often resembling a loud bang or crash.

1. The sudden thrack of the thunder startled everyone at the picnic.
2. As the door slammed shut, it made a loud thrack that echoed through the hallway.
3. With a swift thrack, the ball hit the backboard and bounced into the net.
4. The sound of the thrack against the wooden floor signaled the arrival of the unexpected visitor.
5. She swung the bat with all her might, producing a satisfying thrack as it connected with the ball.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thrack>