THRAPPLE

Meaning: Thrapple (verb): to be caught in a struggle or entanglement, often referring to a mix of conflicting emotions or a playful physical contest.

1. He found himself caught in a thrapple of conflicting emotions after the unexpected news.

2. The old man told stories of how they used to thrapple each other in playful wrestling matches as children.

3. In her excitement, she felt a thrapple of joy and anxiety twist in her stomach before the big presentation.

4. As the debate heated up, the two opponents seemed trapped in a verbal thrapple, unable to concede ground.

5. The thrapple of vines in the garden seemed to symbolize the complicated relationships among the family members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thrapple