

THRAW

Meaning: To throw means to drive away or dispel something, such as warmth or darkness.

1. The fierce winter winds seemed determined to throw any warmth lingering in the air.
2. As the magician cast his spell, he aimed to throw the darkness that engulfed the kingdom.
3. In an unexpected twist, the hero managed to throw the villain's evil plans just in time.
4. The community banded together to throw the destructive forces threatening their peaceful town.
5. With a clever strategy, the team sought to throw the opposing players' advantage on the field.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/throw>