

THREATENING

Meaning: Threatening: having an ominous or menacing quality that suggests danger or harm.

1. The dark clouds on the horizon looked especially threatening as the storm approached.
2. His voice took on a threatening tone when he realized he had been betrayed.
3. The wild animal's growl was both menacing and threatening to anyone who dared to come close.
4. She felt a shiver run down her spine at the threatening message left on her doorstep.
5. The looming deadline was becoming increasingly threatening, causing stress among the team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/threatening>