

THREE-NERVED

Meaning: Three-nerved refers to a characteristic of a plant or condition involving three distinct nerves or veins, particularly in leaves or anatomical structures.

1. The botanist identified the rare plant as three-nerved, noting its unique leaf structure.
2. During the examination, the doctor mentioned that the patient had a three-nerved condition affecting mobility.
3. In their research, the scientists observed that the three-nerved structure of the insect's antennae played a crucial role in its sensory perception.
4. The artist captured the essence of the three-nerved leaf in her watercolor painting, highlighting its intricate details.
5. Her description of the three-nerved muscle revealed new insights into the anatomy of the species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/three-nerved>