

THRESHOLD

Meaning: Threshold: a point or level at which something begins or changes, often referring to an entrance or boundary.

1. She stood at the threshold of the old house, hesitating before stepping inside.
2. Crossing the threshold into adulthood can be both exciting and daunting.
3. The threshold for pain varies significantly from person to person.
4. He paused at the threshold of the room, taking a moment to gather his thoughts.
5. The researchers determined the threshold level for detecting changes in sound.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/threshold>