

THREW

Meaning: THREW: the past tense of throw, meaning to propel something with force through the air using one's arm.

1. She threw the ball across the yard with all her strength.
2. In a fit of anger, he threw his phone against the wall.
3. The chef threw a pinch of salt into the boiling pot.
4. After the meeting, she threw her hands up in frustration.
5. They threw a surprise party for their friend's birthday.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/threw>