

THRILL

Meaning: A thrill is a sudden feeling of intense excitement or pleasure.

1. The thrill of riding a roller coaster never gets old.
2. She felt a thrill of excitement as she opened the letter revealing her acceptance to the university.
3. His heart raced with thrill when he saw the surprise party his friends had planned for him.
4. The risk of skydiving added an exhilarating thrill to their adventurous vacation.
5. Winning the championship game was a thrill that the team would remember forever.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thrill>