

THRONG

Meaning: THRONG (noun): a large, densely packed crowd of people.

1. The throng of spectators cheered loudly as the parade passed by.
2. A throng gathered at the concert venue hours before the doors opened.
3. She felt overwhelmed by the throng of people at the bustling market.
4. The politician was met by a throng of supporters at the rally.
5. As the doors opened, a throng surged forward, eager to get inside.
6. The throng of enthusiastic fans erupted into cheers as the band took the stage.
7. As the parade approached, a throng began to gather along the streets, eager to catch a glimpse of the floats.
8. The marketplace was bustling with a throng of shoppers, each vying for the best deals.
9. Despite the throng of people at the festival, she managed to find a quiet spot to relax and enjoy the atmosphere.
10. He felt a mix of anxiety and excitement as he stepped into the throng at the concert, ready for an unforgettable night.
11. The throng of fans erupted in cheers as the band took the stage.
12. She felt a sense of anxiety as she navigated through the throng at the festival.
13. A throng of people gathered outside the gallery for the exclusive art opening.
14. The market was bustling with a throng of shoppers eager for the best deals.
15. In the midst of the throng, he spotted his friend waving from across the crowd.
16. The throng of fans cheered wildly as their favorite band took the stage.
17. As the parade approached, a throng of onlookers filled the streets, eager for a glimpse of the spectacle.
18. In the heart of the city, a throng gathered to celebrate the annual festival and enjoy the various activities.
19. She felt a surge of anxiety as she navigated through the throng, searching for her lost friend.

20. The artist's gallery opening drew a throng of art enthusiasts, all eager to view the latest works.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/throng>