

THROUGH

Meaning: 'Through' refers to moving in one side and out of the other side of something, or being in the midst of a space or area.

1. She walked through the dense forest, listening to the sounds of nature.
2. The light filtered through the leaves, casting intricate patterns on the ground.
3. We need to work through our differences if we want to find a solution.
4. He glanced through the window and noticed the rain beginning to fall.
5. As the tunnel ended, we emerged through the other side, greeted by the bright sun.
6. She walked through the forest, enjoying the sounds of nature.
7. The project will take us through several stages before completion.
8. He looked through the window, watching the rain fall steadily.
9. They communicated through gestures since they didn't share a common language.
10. The river flows through the valley, providing water to the surrounding fields.
11. She walked through the park, enjoying the fresh air.
12. The train travels through the mountains, offering breathtaking views.
13. He read the book through to the last page, captivated by the story.
14. They communicated through gestures, as they didn't share a common language.
15. Light filtered through the trees, casting beautiful patterns on the ground.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/through>