

THROW-OFF

Meaning: Throw-off: a surprising or unexpected event or change that disrupts plans or causes confusion.

1. The unexpected rain was a complete throw-off for our picnic plans.
2. Her sudden change in attitude was a throw-off that left everyone confused.
3. He used a throw-off strategy to distract his opponent during the chess match.
4. The surprise announcement was a throw-off that changed the course of the meeting.
5. Her unique sense of humor was a delightful throw-off that broke the tension in the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/throw-off>