

THROWN

Meaning: 'Thrown' refers to the act of propelling something with force through the air or discarding something with disregard.

1. The children were thrilled when the birthday cake was thrown into the air, showering them with colorful sprinkles.
2. After the argument, he felt as though his trust had been thrown out the window for good.
3. The athlete was thrown off balance during the match, resulting in a disappointing fall.
4. She threw her hands in the air, expressing both frustration and relief at the same time.
5. The old book was thrown into the fire, its pages curling and blackening as they caught flame.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thrown>