THRUM

Meaning: THRUM: to produce a continuous, rhythmic sound or vibration.

1. The old guitar began to thrum softly, filling the room with a warm melody.
2. As the engine started, it thrum with a steady rhythm that echoed in the garage.
3. In the quiet of the night, she could hear the thrum of city life just beyond her window.
4. The bees created a gentle thrum as they buzzed between the flowers in the garden.
5. His heart began to thrum with excitement as he approached the stage for his performance.
6. The rhythmic thrum of the engine filled the air as the plane took off.
7. As she played her guitar, a gentle thrum resonated through the room, captivating everyone.
8. The distant thrum of the city nightlife echoed in the background as they walked through the park.
9. He felt a reassuring thrum in his chest, a sign that everything was going to be alright.
10. The thrum of the drumbeat synchronized perfectly with the dancers' movements on stage.
11. The guitar began to thrum softly as she strummed the strings.
12. In the distance, the sound of drums would thrum through the night air.
13. As the engine started, it produced a low thrum that resonated in his chest.
14. She could hear the thrum of the city below her apartment window.
15. The crowd began to thrum with excitement as the concert started.
16. The sound of the guitar began to thrum softly in the background.
17. As the train approached, the ground seemed to thrum with the vibrations of its wheels.
18. Her heart began to thrum with excitement as the concert started.
19. The engine thrum echoed through the garage, a reassuring sign of its power.
20. Under the stars, the distant drums thrum created a rhythmic atmosphere around the campfire.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thrum