

THUMP

Meaning: Thump: a heavy, dull sound or a sudden jolt, often associated with a strong impact or physical sensation.

1. The loud thump of the bass reverberated through the walls.
2. She felt a sudden thump in her chest as she spotted him across the room.
3. The book fell from the shelf with a heavy thump, startling everyone nearby.
4. After the thump of the ball hitting the ground, the game resumed with renewed energy.
5. I heard a thump outside and went to check if something had fallen from the tree.
6. The sound of a heavy thump echoed through the empty hallway.
7. She felt a sudden thump in her chest when she saw him after so many years.
8. The box fell from the shelf with a thump, startling everyone in the room.
9. As the drummer finished the solo, the final thump of the bass resonated in the air.
10. With a thump, the old book landed on the table, sending dust flying.
11. The heavy box hit the floor with a loud thump.
12. She felt her heart thump in her chest as the roller coaster descended.
13. A sudden thump echoed through the quiet night, startling the dog.
14. He gave the table a thump to get everyone's attention before speaking.
15. The sound of the basketball thump against the pavement reverberated through the park.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thump>