

THUNDER

Meaning: Thunder is the loud, explosive sound produced by the rapid expansion of air surrounding a lightning bolt during a storm.

1. The thunder rumbled in the distance, signaling the approach of a storm.
2. Children jumped in delight at the sound of thunder, thinking it was a giant playing in the sky.
3. As the thunder cracked overhead, she felt a shiver run down her spine.
4. The sudden thunder interrupted the peaceful evening, sending birds flocking into the air.
5. He couldn't help but feel a sense of awe as the thunder echoed through the mountains.
6. The thunder rumbled ominously in the distance as the storm approached.
7. Children squealed in delight at the sound of thunder, imagining it was a giant bowling game in the sky.
8. After the thunder cracked overhead, the dog whimpered and hid under the couch.
9. The old tree shook with each blast of thunder, as if it were trying to hold on against nature's fury.
10. During the summer afternoons, the sudden roar of thunder often signaled a quick downpour of rain.
11. The sound of thunder echoed across the valley, shaking the ground beneath us.
12. As the storm approached, the children were both excited and a little scared of the booming thunder.
13. She stood by the window, mesmerized by the dramatic flashes of lightning followed closely by the deep rumble of thunder.
14. Thunder rolled in the distance, signaling that a heavy rainstorm was on its way.
15. After the thunderstorm passed, the air felt fresh and invigorating, as if nature had been renewed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thunder>