

THUNDERBURST

Meaning: Thunderburst: a sudden and loud clap of thunder, often associated with a storm, that can startle and resonate through the environment.

1. The sudden thunderburst startled everyone at the outdoor concert.
2. As the storm approached, a thunderburst echoed across the valley, shaking the ground.
3. The weather report warned of a thunderburst that could bring heavy rain and strong winds.
4. The children watched in awe as the thunderburst illuminated the night sky with flashes of lightning.
5. After the thunderburst passed, the air felt fresher and the world seemed oddly quiet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thunderburst>