

THUNDERCLAP

Meaning: A thunderclap is a sudden, loud noise produced by a lightning discharge in the atmosphere, often associated with storms.

1. The thunderclap reverberated through the valley, startling the hikers on the trail.
2. With a sudden thunderclap, the storm announced its arrival, darkening the sky above.
3. She jumped at the unexpected thunderclap, her heart racing in response.
4. The thunderclap echoed across the lake, causing ripples to spread on the surface.
5. As the thunderclap faded, the air was filled with the scent of rain and ozone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thunderclap>