

THUNDERSTRIKE

Meaning: Thunderstrike: a sudden, loud clap of thunder, often accompanied by flashes of lightning, that creates a startling or dramatic effect.

1. The sudden thunderstrike startled everyone at the outdoor concert.
2. With a deafening roar, the thunderstrike lit up the night sky in brilliant flashes.
3. Legends say that a thunderstrike can bring both destruction and renewal to the land.
4. As the storm approached, the anticipation of a thunderstrike electrified the atmosphere.
5. She felt a sense of awe and fear as the thunderstrike resonated through the valley.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thunderstrike>