

THUNDERY

Meaning: Thundery (adjective): characterized by or resembling thunder, often indicating the presence of a storm.

1. The thundery skies warned us of an impending storm.
2. As the evening approached, a thundery rumble echoed across the valley.
3. The thundery atmosphere made the air feel charged with electricity.
4. She loved the sound of thundery weather; it was both frightening and exhilarating.
5. The thundery downpour transformed the quiet street into a bubbling river.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/thundery>