

TICEMENT

Meaning: TICEMENT (noun): A stimulus or incentive that motivates action or encourages development, particularly in an economic or communal context.

1. The government's new infrastructure plan is expected to encourage significant ticement in the local economy.
2. Her passionate speech served as a ticement for the community to unite and take action.
3. The recent art exhibit created a ticement among the city's youth to explore their creative abilities.
4. His promotion at work acted as a ticement for his colleagues to strive for higher performance.
5. The unexpected donation to the charity provided a ticement for more people to get involved in philanthropy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ticement>