

TICK

Meaning: Tick: a short, sharp sound made by a clock or a brief sensation of excitement or anticipation.

1. The clock made a soft tick as the minutes passed by.
2. She felt a tick of excitement when she heard the good news.
3. He checked the time and realized he had only a tick left to finish the exam.
4. The tick of the old grandfather clock filled the room with a nostalgic rhythm.
5. After a long hike, she found a tick attached to her ankle and quickly removed it.
6. The clock made a steady tick as the room fell silent.
7. She felt a tick of anxiety as the interview approached.
8. After checking the script, the director gave a nod, and the stage lights began to tick on.
9. He used a small tick to mark each completed task on his list.
10. With a sudden tick, the timer signaled that the cooking competition was over.
11. She felt a tick of anxiety as she waited for the exam results.
12. He noticed a tick crawling on his arm after a hike in the woods.
13. With each tick of the stopwatch, the tension in the room grew.
14. The teacher used a tick mark to indicate correct answers on the test.
15. The clock made a steady tick as the minutes passed by.
16. She felt a sudden tick of anxiety as she stepped onto the stage.
17. He used a tick mark to indicate which tasks had been completed.
18. The dog shook its fur after a tick was removed from its skin.
19. With a quick tick of the pen, she signed the important document.
20. The clock made a soft tick as the seconds passed.
21. She could hear the tick of the metronome guiding her rhythm.
22. A tick on the wall signaled that it was time to leave.

23. He felt a tick of anxiety as he waited for the results.
24. The dog stopped abruptly, sensing a tick crawling on its fur.
25. She felt a tick of anxiety in her stomach before the presentation.
26. He noticed a tick crawling up his leg while hiking in the woods.
27. After several ticks, the timer finally indicated that the cookies were done.
28. The children eagerly awaited the tick of the bell to signal recess.
29. The sound of the clock's tick filled the silence of the room.
30. She felt a tick on her arm and quickly brushed it away.
31. As soon as the tick reached midnight, the fireworks erupted in the sky.
32. He noticed a tick in his watch that made it run slower than usual.
33. The doctor warned him to check for ticks after hiking in the woods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tick>