

TICKING

Meaning: Ticking refers to the rhythmic sound produced by a clock or similar mechanism, often indicating the passage of time.

1. The ticking of the clock echoed through the silent room.
2. She could hear the ticking of her heart as she waited for the results.
3. Every tick of the timer heightened the tension in the competition.
4. The old clock had a rhythmic ticking that brought a sense of comfort.
5. As the deadline approached, the ticking became increasingly distracting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ticking>