

TICKLE-FOOTED

Meaning: Tickle-footed refers to being particularly sensitive to touch or tickling sensations on the feet, often resulting in laughter or playful reactions.

1. The tickle-footed child burst into laughter when her dad touched her feet.
2. On a chilly evening, the tickle-footed puppy scampered around the living room, delighting everyone.
3. He was known for his tickle-footed antics, always ready to turn a serious moment into giggles.
4. The tickle-footed sensation on her soles made her squirm and giggle uncontrollably.
5. During the game, the tickle-footed participants found it hard to keep a straight face while trying to balance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tickle-footed>