

TICKTACK

Meaning: Ticktick (noun): the sound made by a clock or timer, characterized by a rhythmic ticking noise.

1. The clock's relentless ticktick filled the quiet room with a rhythmic urgency.
2. As the countdown began, the ticktick of the timer seemed to amplify my anxiety.
3. Children laughed as they mimicked the ticktick of a clock during their game of pretend.
4. In the stillness of the night, the soft ticktick echoed through the empty hallways.
5. With each ticktick, I felt time slipping away as I raced to finish my project.
6. The rhythmic ticktick of the clock echoed through the silent room.
7. As the countdown began, the ticktick of the timer heightened the excitement in the air.
8. Every ticktick reminded her that time was running out for the big presentation.
9. He often found comfort in the steady ticktick of the grandfather clock in the corner.
10. The children paused their game, listening to the ticktick that marked each passing second.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ticktick>