

TIDELESS

Meaning: TIDELESS: lacking the presence or influence of tides; characterized by a calm and flat sea or shore.

1. The tide was so low that the beach appeared tideless, revealing a vast expanse of damp sand.
2. In the early morning, the tideless sea mirrored the golden hues of the rising sun.
3. She found a certain peace in the tideless landscape, where the ocean met the shore without the usual rhythmic waves.
4. The artist captured the beauty of the tideless bay, emphasizing its stillness and serenity.
5. On that quiet afternoon, the tideless waters were a perfect canvas for the vibrant sunset.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tideless>