

TIE-ROD

Meaning: A tie-rod is a structural component in a vehicle's steering system that connects the steering gear to the wheels, ensuring proper alignment and responsiveness.

1. The mechanic replaced the worn tie-rod to ensure the steering was responsive.
2. During the inspection, the technician identified a loose tie-rod that needed immediate attention.
3. A faulty tie-rod can lead to severe handling issues and compromise vehicle safety.
4. He learned the hard way that a broken tie-rod can cause the wheels to misalign dramatically.
5. The car's performance improved significantly after the new tie-rod was installed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tie-rod>