

TIEBAR

Meaning: A tiebar is a structural element used to connect and stabilize components of a framework or structure.

1. The engineer recommended using a tiebar to enhance the structural integrity of the bridge.
2. During the assembly, the workers carefully installed the tiebar to stabilize the framework.
3. The tiebar played a crucial role in distributing the weight evenly across the structure.
4. After inspecting the old building, the architect decided to add a tiebar to prevent further sagging.
5. With the new tiebar in place, the team felt confident in the safety of the construction project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tiebar>