

TIER

Meaning: A tier is a level or layer in a system or structure that offers varying options or benefits, often used in pricing or service models.

1. The concert tickets are available in three different tiers, each offering unique benefits.
2. In a tiered pricing model, customers can choose packages based on their budget and needs.
3. The new software update introduced a tier system that rewards users for their engagement.
4. Each tier of the competition has its own set of challenges and requirements for participants.
5. The organization decided to implement a tiered donation system to encourage larger contributions from supporters.
6. The company offers several tier levels for its subscription service, each with different benefits.
7. She placed the books back onto the shelf, organizing them by tier of difficulty.
8. His performance in the tournament earned him a spot in the top tier of competitors.
9. The restaurant features a tiered seating arrangement that provides a great view of the stage.
10. In the game, players can unlock new abilities by progressing through various tiers of challenges.
11. The hotel offers three different tiers of membership, each with its own benefits.
12. In the competition, participants were divided into tiers based on their skill levels.
13. She placed her books on the top tier of the shelf to save space below.
14. The new pricing model introduced a tiered system that adjusts costs according to usage.
15. His promotion was well deserved, as he consistently performed at the highest tier of the organization.