

TIFF

Meaning: A tiff is a small, petty quarrel or disagreement, often between friends or loved ones.

1. She had a minor tiff with her friend over the choice of restaurant.
 2. The couple's tiff quickly escalated into a full-blown argument.
 3. After their little tiff, they both realized how silly it was and made up.
 4. He always tries to avoid a tiff by keeping the peace during family gatherings.
 5. Her tiff with the neighbor was over a misunderstanding about property lines.
 6. After a small tiff with her friend, she realized how trivial their argument had been.
 7. The couple often had a tiff over which movie to watch on Friday nights.
 8. He couldn't help but laugh at the silly tiff that had caused such a fuss among the team.
 9. Their tiff was quickly forgotten once they both apologized and shared a laugh.
 10. She always tried to avoid unnecessary tiffs with her colleagues to maintain a peaceful work environment.
 11. She had a small tiff with her friend over the choice of restaurant.
 12. Their playful tiff quickly turned into laughter as they remembered the silly argument.
 13. After a brief tiff, they made up and decided to enjoy the rest of their evening together.
 14. The couple's tiff was so minor that they hardly remembered what it was about by the end of the day.
 15. He tried to smooth things over after their tiff by bringing her favorite flowers.
 16. They had a small tiff over who would take out the trash.
 17. After their latest tiff, they decided to give each other some space.
 18. The friends resolved their tiff with a heartfelt conversation over coffee.
 19. She often enjoyed playful tiffs with her sibling that ended in laughter.
 20. Despite their tiff, they were still committed to supporting each other.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tiff>