

TIFFISH

Meaning: TIFFISH: easily irritated or prone to sulking; irritable or touchy in demeanor.

1. Her tiffish demeanor made it difficult for anyone to approach her without feeling apprehensive.
2. After a long day, he was in a tiffish mood, snapping at even the smallest comments.
3. The child's tiffish behavior was a clear sign that she needed a nap.
4. Despite her tiffish attitude, she managed to deliver a heartfelt apology to her friend.
5. The meeting was tense, with several tiffish exchanges that only escalated the disagreements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tiffish>