

TIGER-FOOTED

Meaning: Tiger-footed refers to a characteristic or feature resembling the distinctive patterns or marks associated with a tiger, often used to describe certain species or tracks that display similar patterns.

1. The rare tiger-footed species of butterfly has fascinated entomologists for decades.
2. In the jungle, the tiger-footed tracks led us deeper into the unknown territory.
3. Her vibrant artwork featured a striking tiger-footed design that captured the essence of the wild.
4. As we explored the forest, we were lucky enough to spot a tiger-footed lizard basking on a rock.
5. The ancient tapestry depicted a scene with tiger-footed animals roaming freely across the landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tiger-footed>