

TIGRINE

Meaning: Tigrine refers to something that resembles or relates to a tiger, particularly in terms of coloration or pattern, often characterized by bold stripes or spots.

1. The tigrine coat of the big cat shimmered in the sunlight, showcasing its striking patterns.
2. In her art class, she decided to paint a tigrine landscape that captured the wild beauty of the jungle.
3. The tigrine markings on the ceramic vase added an exotic touch to the otherwise simple design.
4. During the wildlife documentary, the narrator highlighted the elusive nature of the tigrine species.
5. He wore a tigrine scarf that perfectly complemented his adventurous spirit and love for the outdoors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tigrine>