

TIMBERHEAD

Meaning: Timberhead: a leader or chief in a logging crew, responsible for overseeing the quality and sustainability of timber production.

1. The timberhead of the logging crew meticulously inspected each piece of wood for quality.
2. In the small town, the timberhead was known for his expertise in sustainable forestry practices.
3. The architect consulted the timberhead to ensure the structural integrity of the wooden beams.
4. During the workshop, the timberhead shared valuable tips on selecting the best timber for construction.
5. After years in the industry, the timberhead had a keen eye for spotting defects in lumber.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/timberhead>