

TIMBERMAN

Meaning: Timberman: a skilled worker who harvests and processes timber, particularly in logging and forestry.

1. The timberman skillfully wielded his chainsaw to fell the towering trees in the forest.
2. After years of training, he became a renowned timberman, respected for his expertise in sustainable logging.
3. The timberman's knowledge of tree species helped him select the best logs for high-quality furniture.
4. During the workshop, the timberman shared his techniques for safely navigating through dense woodlands.
5. As a timberman by trade, he understood the importance of preserving the ecosystem while harvesting wood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/timberman>